CORE CURRICULUM COMMITTEE COURSE REMOVAL FORM

2009-2010

DATE: November 17, 2009

DEPARTMENT: History/Social Sciences

COURSE TITLE: U.S. History I

COURSE PREFIX/NUMBER: HIST 1301

REMOVAL FROM WHICH COMPONENT AREA: Social/Behavioral Sciences

1. Explain your reasons for wishing to remove this course from the core.

It is redundant to include HIST 1301 in the Social/Behavioral Sciences component. The course is required of all students in the History/Government component, so none will ever be able to take it for Social Sciences credit. Moreover, the course does not satisfy the EEO's required of courses in the Social Sciences component. No other college in the State of Texas permits this course to count as Social Science.

2. Is this course currently offered at Del Mar College? YES NO
   a. If No, when was it last offered?

   b. If Yes, will it continue to be offered even if removed from the core curriculum?
      YES NO

3. Does this course have prerequisites that fulfill core requirements? YES NO. Is this a factor in your decision to remove the course from the Core? YES NO
4. Is this course specifically required in any degree plans besides yours? YES NO
   a. If Yes, which ones?
      As part of the History/Government component, it is required by all degree plans.
      None, however, require it for Social Sciences credit.

   b. Have all departments that specifically require this course been notified of the decision to withdraw it from the core? YES NO

      1) If Yes, provide evidence
         See attached e-mail

      2) If No, why not?

   c. Have any other departments raised concerns about this proposed change?
      Explain.
      No.

5. Is this course specifically required for students majoring in your discipline?
   YES NO Will it continue to be? YES NO

6. Will dropping this course from the Core significantly decrease enrollment in the course? YES NO. Explain.
   As explained above, no students take 1301 for Social Sciences credit, so enrollment will not be affected.

   Will removing this course from the Core cause faculty to lose courses, or have any significant impact on full-time or adjunct faculty employment or on the staffing needs of your department? YES NO. Explain.
   There will no impact on faculty employment.
